He is also a member of the Investment Committee of the Board.

Tan Sri Tony graduated from the London School of Economics. He was admitted as an Associate Member of the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants in 1991 and became a Fellow Member in 1996. He also received an Honorary Doctorate of Business Innovation from Universiti Teknologi Malaysia (UTM) in March 2010.

In 1999, the Sultan of Selangor bestowed on him the title Setia Mahkota Selangor for his contributions to the Malaysian music industry. He also received the Recording Industry Person of the Year 1997 award from the Recording Industry Association of Malaysia.

Since launching AirAsia, he has received numerous state awards as well as industry accolades. Within Malaysia, he has been awarded the title Dato’ by the Sultans of Negeri Sembilan and Pahang; Dato’ Seri by the Sultan of Perak; and Tan Sri from a former Yang di-Pertuan Agong. Internationally, he has been presented the title Officer of the Legion d’Honneur, followed by the Commander of the Legion d’Honneur, the highest rank of honour that the French Government can bestow on non-French citizens. He was awarded the title Commander of the Order of the British Empire (CBE) by Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II.

From the industry, he was presented the Airline Business Strategy Award 2005 and Low Cost Leadership Award by Airline Business and named Asia Pacific Aviation Executive by the Centre for Asia Pacific Aviation (CAPA) for the years 2004 and 2005. He bagged The Brand Laureate Brand Personality Award in 2006 and 2007; was presented the CAPA Legend Award 2009 (Aviation Hall of Fame); and the Airline CEO of the Year Award for 2009 from Jane’s Transport Finance.

In 2010, Tan Sri Tony was awarded the Nikkei Asia Prize in Tokyo and the Masterclass Global CEO of the Year award at the 2nd Malaysia Business Leadership Award (MBLA). He was also named Forbes Asia Businessman of the Year 2010, the first Asean citizen to receive the award.

In 2011, Tan Sri Tony was awarded one of the most creative people in business by New York-based business magazine Fast Company and was on its Top 10 Most Creative People in Twitter list. He was also named CEO of the Year at the Annual Budgies World Low Cost Airline Awards held in London; and CNBC Travel Business Leader of 2011 at CNBC’s Travel Business Leaders Award Asia Pacific held in Singapore.

In 2012, he was bestowed the Individual Achievement of the Year award at the 1st Malaysia Achievement Awards 2012, organised by the Malaysia Achievement Organisation (MACA). He was also honoured with the Best CEO for IR - Mid Cap award by the Malaysian Investor Relations Association Berhad (MIRA); named as one of Malaysia’s outstanding CEOs by The Edge Billion Ringgit Club (BRC); and announced as GQ India’s International Businessman of the Year 2012.

In January 2013, Tan Sri Tony was named a Malaysia Brand Ambassador by Prime Minister Dato’ Sri Mohd Najib bin Tun Haji Abdul Razak at the World Economic Forum in Davos, Switzerland. He went on to win Corporate Governance Asia’s Best CEO for Malaysia award - for the third year in a row – in March 2013.

He was named Airline Industry Leader of the Year at the 4th Aviation 100 Awards in January 2014, and Brand Builder of the Year at the 2014 World Branding Awards. Most recently, he made it onto 2015 TIME 100, the magazine’s annual list of the 100 most influential people in the world.

GEMENT TEAM
Joy took on the challenge of leading Philippines’ AirAsia as its Chief Executive Officer in April 2014, during a significant period when it fully acquired local carrier Zest Airways Inc, grew its fleet from two aircraft to 15; moved its operation into Manila’s major international gateway, NAIA, from Clark airport and thereafter expanded its hubs outside Metro Manila and into Kalibo, gateway to Boracay, and Cebu.

Armed with a unique combination of legal training and exposure to the local corporate environment, Joy navigated the lean yet dynamic Filipino team along the complex and often challenging regulatory environment. Under her guidance, the group of Allstars, with diverse backgrounds and experience, formed a formidable force that successfully launched new domestic and international routes, improved its on-time performance and achieved a remarkable increase in passenger loads with aggressive marketing campaigns.

Prior to joining Philippines’ AirAsia, Joy was the external legal counsel advising AirAsia on the acquisition of Zest Airways Inc. Upon passing her Philippine Bar Examination in 2005, she entered legal practice specialising in corporate law.

Tassapon has more than 12 years’ experience in the consumer product industry. He worked in various countries in the region for two Fortune 500 companies - Adams (Thailand) Co Ltd and Monsanto (Thailand) Co Ltd. He was a pioneer at Monsanto, setting up the division from scratch before building it into a multimillion dollar business in just a few years.

Tassapon holds a Master’s in Marketing, and is currently a part-time lecturer at several leading universities in Thailand. He is well-known for his leadership and team-building abilities. Thai AirAsia’s success is a result of a passionate, motivated team with strong rapport.

Tassapon joined Thai AirAsia as Chief Executive Officer when the airline took off in 2003. He is entrusted with overseeing all aspects of the airline’s operations as well as boosting growth in Thailand. Prior to joining Thai AirAsia, Tassapon was Managing Director of Warner Music (Thailand) Co Ltd for five years. Within three years, he managed to turn around the company from bottom ranking among all international music companies to achieving the top position.

Mittu was appointed as Chief Executive Officer of AirAsia India in May 2013, bringing with him a unique mix of leadership experiences ranging from a successful entrepreneurial start-up to country, regional and global leadership roles within multinational organisations and, finally, to high-impact management consulting experience. He has always been a passionate follower of the aviation industry, and in his last role as Principal and Head of Services practice in Asia-Pacific at Egon Zehnder, took leadership in the Travel & Hospitality segment, where his primary focus was Airlines and Aviation. Having lived in Canada, the US, China, Malaysia, India and Singapore, Mittu is excited to implement the pillar stones of AirAsia in India and revolutionise Indian aviation, making flying affordable to every Indian.

Mittu has MBA degrees from INSEAD, France/Singapore and from Tsinghua University, Beijing, China. He also holds a Bachelor of Science in Business and Economics (Dean’s List) with a distinguishing triple major from Lehigh University, Pennsylvania, US.

As Head of AirAsia’s Flight Attendant Department, Farhana oversees a total of 1,400 flight attendants based in Malaysia. Her primary role is to reach the highest possible standards of professionalism in flight attendant practice. Towards this end, she instils in her team exceptional guest service skills and a performance culture that reinforces the consistent delivery of AirAsia hospitality to achieve maximum passenger satisfaction and safety. Her journey in AirAsia began in 1997 when she joined the airline as a member of its cabin crew. She was promoted as Senior Cabin Crew in 2001 and later ventured into Safety Training based at the AirAsia Academy. She served as a trainer for two years before being promoted to Lead Instructor in 2006. After serving four years in training, she joined AirAsia’s Flight Attendant Department as an Assistant Flight Attendant Manager in 2010. With her exemplary performance, in 2012 she was promoted to lead the department as its Accountable Manager, and in 2013 was appointed to her current role as Head of the Flight Attendant Department.

Jagan Persath
Group Head, Security

Jagan joined AirAsia in May 2007 and is today Group Head of Security, responsible for every aspect of corporate security and emergency response across all the airlines within the AirAsia Group. This is achieved through sound corporate policy and standardisation of security practices, timely advice and effective security performance by the airline and its contractors. Prior to joining AirAsia, Jagan was with Malaysia Airlines Aviation Security from 1978 till 2006, responsible for operations, enforcement, compliance and standards, investigations, prosecutions, audits, station set-ups, and conducting security assessments on all routes. He is an ICAO Aviation Security Specialist and global subject matter expert on aviation security. Under his leadership, AirAsia has been licensed by the Department of Civil Aviation Malaysia to conduct AVSEC Courses. The Security Department has also passed all International / National Security Audits conducted on AirAsia. Jagan holds an LLB (Hons) from the UK and is a Barrister with Lincoln's Inn.
